HOLLYWOOD star Matthew McConaughey was yesterday named the "Celebrity Dad With The Brightest Smile" in an Irish poll.

The 40-year-old father of two took 32% of the vote in a survey by Dublin dental practice The Seapoint Clinic in Blackrock, South Dublin.

Tom Cruise's nashers came in at second place with 26% followed by Brad Pitt with 17%.

Dr Thomas Linehan from the Seapoint Clinic said: "A great smile is always in fashion. Stars look after their teeth and always have a glowing smile.

"Ordinary people can get the look too. A smile make-over gives people confidence, and the difference in facial appearance is instant and quite remarkable."
